Dear Georgian,

6 weeks to go! The count down has begun and we look forward to welcoming you at the Millennium Gloucester Hotel, in London.

Enclosed please find the academic programme for the day that has been drawn up to suit the needs of the majority. There is an interesting mix of "old" and "new" in addition to our external speaker speaking on "Contributions by Georgians and Gems".

The icing on the cake is the evening cultural show. We have pleasure in announcing a "Musshaira" as an appetiser from eminent Indian artists Dr. Padmesh Gupta and colleagues. Reena Tandon, a renowned lok geet singer from your very own city, Lucknow, has agreed to provide the finale encouraging you to the dance floor after dessert. If this wasn't enough, we also have prizes for some lucky winners – keep guessing as we don't intend to leak the cat out of the bag!

Can we also remind those of you who have not already posted, to send your cheque along with completed registration forms. To avoid disappointment please confirm whether you are attending along with your dietary requirements. Your details (Year of Qualification) are needed to produce your badges. Catering has been booked for a defined number from The Clay Oven. To deliver efficiently we need to know the precise numbers expected for dinner, so please confirm your participation by return post, along with your meal preference.

We are made to believe that some of you have experienced problems in booking your rooms at the Millennium Gloucester Hotel. So far only 9 rooms have been booked. We have spoken to the manager co-ordinating this group booking who has provided us a form to assist you in the booking process. You can use the form enclosed to book or over the telephone using the code THECL_1609. All un-booked rooms will be released on August 14th after which discounted rates will no longer apply.

Finally, can we request you all a personal favour. It will assist us as organiser, if we could persuade you all to post your completed registration forms with your cheque by return post. This information is essential to make the badges and arrange seating for the dinner.

Look forward to welcoming you all on the 16th.

With kind regards

Dr Ira Pande
